

My Family Tree Has Roots

Story by Tina Mowrey      Illustrations by Vineet Siddhartha

When Jasmyn’s teacher assigns a family tree project to the class, Jasmyn can’t help but feel uneasy. She loves her family, but she’s not sure how everyone fits together. Jasmyn is especially unsure about where to place her birth parents. To complete her project, Jasmyn must look at her tree in a different way.

About the Author

A transplant from Massachusetts, Tina lives in Austin, Texas, where the sun shines bigger and brighter! Having been a singer/songwriter for years, Tina decided to put pen to paper and try her hand at picture book writing. It was much harder than expected, but she’s loved it from the start. When she isn’t writing picture books, Tina spends her time working as an eighth-grade language arts teacher and keeping up with her family of four humans and five pets!

About the Illustrator

Born in 1982 in Lucknow city, India, Vineet Kumar Siddhartha is known for his acute attention to form. He earned his master of fine arts in the late 2000s and has worked in various design firms and animation studios. He has also illustrated numerous children’s books and comic books and won multiple awards for his work, which has been published all around the world.
