Gloria's Hope Tree

Hope the maple tree is often overlooked by shoppers at the garden nursery because of her small size, crooked branches, and few leaves. Then, one spring day, Gloria and Daddy choose Hope, bring her home, and plant her by the roadside. Despite Hope's joy in her new home, Gloria and Daddy sometimes seem so sad. Why did they choose Hope, and how will she fit into their little family? Join Hope, Gloria, and Daddy to find hope in unlikely places.

About the Author

Stephanie Parwulski has a lifelong love of children's literature. She is the author of Beatrice and the Sunflower Gift and is excited to be on this journey of writing her own books. Through her words, she hopes to provide encouragement, hope, and understanding. She lives in Buffalo, NY, where she works as a preschool aide and enjoys spending time with her family and friends. Stephanie is also dedicated to raising awareness about mental health by sharing her personal experiences with anxiety and grief through her writing.

About the Illustrator

Tania Ramírez-Cuevas was born in Mérida Yucatán, México, where she studied for a degree in graphic design before deciding to be a professional illustrator. Working mostly freelance, Tania specializes in children's illustration, cartoons, character design, and webcomics. Tania has also spoken at conferences and hosted drawing classes for teenagers and adults.
