Le Mouse Caper

written by Marilyn Seigle

illustrated by Maegan Penley

Allo, mon chéri! Join Chloe, a mouse from Paris, and Philippe, her American cousin, as they explore a little house on Maine's coast. Together, they'll scurry from the top of the attic to the basement floor. But they'll have to watch out—the humans are home and cats lurk about! Come along with these mischievous mice for a summer adventure you won't soon forget!

About the Author

Marilyn Seigle was born and raised in Kansas City, Missouri. After graduating from the University of Arizona, she married a young West Point graduate. Over the next forty years, Maj. Gen. and Mrs. John William Seigle had three children together and made more than twenty moves throughout the United States and Europe. Marilyn and John spent many happy seasons at Summerhill, their retreat in Kennebunkport, Maine. Over the course of thirty years, they restored their much-loved home, which was the inspiration for this book. This is Marilyn's third book, following Bunny's Busy Day and Boswell Bear Goes to School.

About the Illustrator

Maegan Penley is a children's illustrator who lives in Georgia with her husband, son, and large slobbery dog. She can often be seen jogging around her neighborhood with the dog in tow, distractedly looking at trees, plants, bugs, and animals. She really, really likes stories.
