About the Author

Tansill Johnson received her English degree from Goucher College and her master of arts in international relations from Salve Regina University. She worked for the U.S. Army in public affairs for over thirty years. She is a mother and a grandmother and is known as "Mooma" to all her grandchildren. Over the years she has read hundreds of books to her grandchildren and was inspired to write fun, simple stories drawn from real-life experiences. She is also the author of Mooma and the Mouse and Who Is Mooma?
