Dust on the Bible

BONNIE STANARD

To Lily, truth is out of reach and elusive, especially the reason for her father's absence from her extended family. As clues multiply, she discovers that the people in her family are less easily known than she previously imagined. What she learns about them and about her father sets in motion questions about life itself.

About the Author

Bonnie Stanard is an award-winning poet and writer living in Lexington, South Carolina. Though she has traveled far from the farm where she grew up, she often returns to it in her writing. She has edited periodicals as well as published poems and short stories in journals such as Main Street Rag, Crack the Spine, and The Hollins Critic.
