MOOMA AND THE MOUSE

BY TANSILL JOHNSON

ILLUSTRATED BY KATHERINE JOHNSON

A tiny visitor can be a BIG problem...

When Mooma goes downstairs one morning, what does she find? A mouse living in her house! Oh, what to do? Join Mooma and PaPa as they try to oust their clever little guest, who doesn't know he's not welcome!

About the Author

Tansill Johnson received her English degree from Goucher College and her master of arts in international relations from Salve Regina University. She worked for the U.S. Army in public affairs for over thirty years. She is a mother and a grandmother and is known as "Mooma" to all her grandchildren. Over the years she has read hundreds of books to her grandchildren and was inspired to write fun, simple stories drawn from real-life experiences. Mooma and the Mouse is her first book.

About the Illustrator

Katherine Johnson was born in Washington D.C. and graduated from West Point. After serving five years in the Army, she now has two children, a wonderful husband and two very enthusiastic dogs. This is her first collaboration with the author and her first illustrated children's book. Her house is currently mouse-free.
