THE PRESIDENTS DID WHAT?

STORY BY WAG HARRISON

ILLUSTRATIONS BY
C. ROD. UNALT

STEP RIGHT UP FOR A SPOOKY TOUR OF THE WHITE HOUSE!
A long-dead, but still charismatic, Millard Fillmore will serve as your ghostly guide as you make your way through the Executive Mansion. Learn about the history of each room you visit from ghosts of presidents past—arguably the worst presidents in US history. Discover how they ended up there, cursed for all eternity to haunt the rooms of the White House, and find out why it's so important for us to learn from their mistakes.

About the Author

Wag Harrison is an award-winning writer and educator. Holding graduate degrees in both history and educational leadership, Wag spent nearly twenty years as a teacher and school administrator before settling in as a full-time father. A lifelong lover of learning and of telling tales from the past, Wag is proud to call The President Did What? his flagship picture book. Wag lives in Bon Air, Virginia, with his wife and three children.

About the Illustrator

Christina Rodriguez-Unalt, or “C. Rod. Unalt,” is an illustrator of all things whimsical. She’s been creating images since her kindergarten teacher taught her how to use a scratchboard and has been working professionally for over a decade. Christina began her career as a scenic painter at a creature shop, where she painted murals and large-scale sculptures for mini golf courses, storefronts, windows, and parade floats. Her work has appeared in children’s magazines and textbooks, and she holds a master’s degree in illustration. This is her fourth illustrated book.
