Teddy Lou, Bell Guru

Story by
Chris Demeropolis

Art by
Sara Fox

With fun rhymes and bell chimes, follow young Teddy Lou as he explores his fascination with bells. When Teddy questions whether bells have strange smells, he must leap to learn more and even work out a scientific solution to ensure his safety. But will our favorite bell explorer find his answer before the bell rings?

About the Author

Chris Demeropolis enjoys writing stories about subjects that entertain and amuse her children. With an interest in writing since she could pick up a pen, she earned a bachelor's degree in Journalism from Ohio University. Chris is a seasoned storyteller, spending the first half of her writing career as a PR professional for well-known brands. She lives in Kentucky, near the World Peace Bell, with her husband, two sons, and cat.

About the Illustrator

Sara Fox has enjoyed doing anything creatively from as young as she can remember. After earning her bachelor's degree from the University of Cincinnati's DAAP program, she has created many things from diaper designs to a children's book. Sara lives in Ohio with her husband, two kids and a dog.
