Redeemed by the Light

Keith W. Rustin Jr.

About the Book

In Redeemed by the Light, author K. W. Rustin tells the story of his harrowing journey through a blur of alcohol and drug addiction, broken marriage, serial housing situations, unemployment and the inevitable depression and loss of self esteem that accompanies a life gone wrong.

Along the way, he is blessed by the mercy and grace of God, so this is also a story of his redemption. As he writes, "the dark veil of alcohol covers a lot of people, and the testimonies of Christ are for all who will hear. If I can help one person shake off the weight of depression and save one child from hopelessness, I will have done my part, because we are not alone. There is hope in the words of Jesus Christ."

Join Keith as he travels from the darkness into the light.

About the Author

K. W. Rustin is an avid sportsman and a recovering alcoholic. He came from a broken home, endured a string of failed relationships and the cocaine binge of the 1990s and walked through life with the crutch of alcohol until he could go no further. As his story reveals, however, God would not let the hand of the enemy hold him any longer and he was given the exact measure of faith necessary to find life anew. He lives and writes in Georgia.
