Mabee at the Market

Story by
Allen Edgar Rogers

Illustrations by Whitney Hill

Mabee at the Market is a gentle, beautifully illustrated story about a little girl facing big feelings in a new place. When Mabee's trip to the market becomes a bit overwhelming, she learns how a simple plan, staying calm, and looking for help in the right places can get her through the gauntlet!

About the Author

Allen Edgar Rogers is the author of the Mabee book series. He continues to delight young readers with humor, heart, and a sharp eye for life's quirks. Rogers lives in Virginia with his wife, three kids, and dog. When not writing, he spends his time fixing up old houses, distance running, and thinking about the weather.

About the Illustrator

Whitney Hill is a creative director and illustrator who shares a home outside of Austin, Texas, with her husband, son, and two dogs. When she's not making art or chasing her son around the backyard, Whitney is pickling vegetables in her kitchen at home—usually green beans.
